Reflections of Life

Darnelle Jennings "Woo" 52 died on Monday, February 4, 2019. Suddenly on Aldine Street in Newark, NJ.

Darnelle was born June 6, 1966 in Newark, NJ and was a lifelong resident of 24-26 Willoughby Street to the late Mary "Red" Jennings and Flemmings Baskerville.

In his early years of life, he attended School then attend Bargraw Elementary School then attended Arts High School for his talent or art. Although Woo did not work a regular nine to five job occasionally he would work odd end jobs in the neighborhood.

Darnelle could be found in the South Ward on Lyons Ave at the Oasis Bar where he brought his favorite Fire Ball drink while laughing, joking and cursing his friends out.

He is preceded in death by grandparents, Bertha and Dave Jennings and one uncle Rufus Jennings.

He is survived by one brother Todd Jennings, a aunt Jeanette Jennings; cousin, Brian Jennings; one niece Jamaiah Jennings; two brothers, Zakai Jennings and Jalil Brown with a host of family and friends.

Darnelle will be missed by all who came with in contact with him. His journey in life has been complete and God came and granted him eternal peace.

Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn something,
but never meant to stay....
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting, peace.
Together with the Lord.
