Obituary

Osber Lee Stilley, Sr. passed away peacefully on March 19, 2019.

Osber was born on August 2, 1940, in Edward, North Carolina, to the late Mattie and Edward Stilley. Osber moved to Greenport, Long Island upon completion of high school. He later moved to Manhattan, New York (Harlem), where he raised his family along with his wife of 57 years.

He was a hard working man who always provided for his family and ensured they were taken care of. He enjoyed spending time with his family and watching Westerns and sports.

He retired from Handy Ambulette Company in 1995.

He leaves behind his loving wife, Preddy Stilley; his three children, Montrice Stilley, Osber Lee Stilley, Jr. and Toya Stilley Vaughan; son-in-law, David Vaughan; two grandchildren, Tyrell Scott and Daiona Stilley Vaughan; along with three brothers, Ernest Stilley, Sr. (Joann), Norman Stilley and Floyd Stilley (Eleanor); one sister, Lela Yates (Samuel); a host of nieces, nephews, and close friends, that he loved very much; a special cousin/friend, Anthony Moore; and a special niece, Iris Bond.

He Will Call

(Job 14:13-15)

1. *Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away, Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:*

(CHORUS)

*He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing, For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.*

2. *Friends of our God, though they may pass away, Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay, From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.*

(CHORUS)

*He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing, For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.*
