Obituary

Rose Marie Roberson-Toler was born and raised in the city of Newark, New Jersey on March 28, 1940 to the late Frank and Willie Roberson. She was the youngest of six children. Rose Marie attended the Newark Public Schools in which she graduated from Central High School. She also attended Rutgers University in Newark, NJ for one and a half years.

Rose Marie married Richard Toler and from this union they had two children. She was a dear wife and mother and a very dotting grandmother and great grandmother. Rose Marie was a family first person. She loved the Lord Jesus Christ and her family. If anyone was in need she was there to help family and friends in any capacity that was needed.

Rose Marie worked for both the city of Newark and the state of NJ. She was a Brownie Girl Scout Leader, she volunteered at churches helping children to read and she also helped at churches feeding the homeless. Rose Marie was a kind, generous, compassionate person who enjoyed helping others.

Rose Marie also enjoyed the theater, she loved the Olympics Ice & Figure Skating as well as gymnastics. She was an avid reader. She also enjoyed traveling and traveled extensively throughout the world. She always had an endearing spirit & always cheered for the “underdog”. But most of all she loved the Lord Jesus Christ and her favorite bible verse was Romans 8:28.

She was predeceased by her three sisters, Shalimar Roberson, Betty Knowles-Sharif, and Marion Kidd, and one brother, EdNorman Abdullah.

She leaves to mourn her husband, Richard; son, Terrance; daughter, Monica; two granddaughters, LaTiffane (Quaseem) and Morae; two great grandchildren, Zafina and Kaleem (affectionately called Prince); niece/daughter, Donna; brother, Frank Robinson; with a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
