Obituary

Annette Mulligan-Thomas was born on August 24th, 1952 in King's County Hospital to the late great Lott Mulligan and the late Carrie Bell Rogers who birthed eleven children.

Annette attended New York City Public School 83, IS 210 and Thomas Jefferson High School all located in Brooklyn. Annette enjoyed reading novels and listening to her oldies but goodies music. She worked as a waitress in lower Manhattan for over ten years to provide for her family.

She birthed six children, Vance and the late Clarence Mulligan being the oldest two of the six, before marrying her husband, Gregory Thomas in the early '70s. She and Greg then bore four children after their union, Leroy, Veda, Alice and Sheila.

Annette leaves behind: eighteen grandchildren, Latoya, Shavon, Kashauna, Darnelle, Mocha, Derranique, Derrick Jr., Darren, Alexis, Kayshawn, Shawnasia, Neveah, Ro'yel, Le'era, Shy'anne, Zairhra, Clarence, and George, (Dion preceded her); a host of nine great-granddaughters; seven great grandsons; and her remaining four siblings, Elizabeth, Lawrence, Grant and Irina. Annette was loved by everyone who came in contact with her and loved by many; leaving behind a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
