Obituary

Mavis Addy-Kotee was born and christened Esther Elyza Nah Densua Addy on the 16th of January 1957. Her parents were the late Edward-William Lovelace Addy Snr. and Mary Essie-Bri Addy who both hailed from Jamestown, British Accra Ghana. The late Mary Addy gave birth to 12 children which included three sets of twins and Mavis was the last born of her siblings. (Our baby sister).

Mavis had her primary education at the New Hope Primary School and Methodist Girls School (now Accra Wesley Girls High School) all at Kaneshie a suburb of Accra.

After completion of her basic education she proceeded to the King's College at Kokomlemlé, Accra to undertake Secretarial Studies. We believe it was there that she adopted the name Mavis and has been known till present day as such.

After school Mavis met and got married to the late Michael NII Ashirifie Nunoo (predeceased) in February 1978, which union was blessed with two children Gabriel and Nikole. Somewhere along the line Mike and Mavis decided to go their separate ways probably to chase and fulfill their individual dreams and destinies.

Mavis then enrolled at the Essex County College in New Jersey to unearth her hidden potential and abilities. While at College and as fate would have it, she again met and married the late Pascal Mabea Kotee. Their blissful union was once again blessed with two adorable offspring Justin and Denzella (GeeGee).

Until her demise she worked in the Food Services Department of Cedar Crest College. She was also a member of the Brothers and Sisters club in New Jersey.

The last few years had seen Mavis battling with her health issues until God in His infinite wisdom and mercy granted her rest on the 3rd of March 2019. She is survived by her four children, two beautiful grandchildren seven brothers and sisters and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews, and a lot of friends to mourn her.

Our hearts are broken and heavy!! Our eyes are filled with endless tears!! We grieve for you Mavis!! We still cannot find answers as to why you should leave at this time of our lives.

We will forever miss your kind and caring ways and your infectious smile. You related to every one of us in your own special way. So, kind and always willing to share whatever you had. You were so selfless. Mavis always putting others before herself.

We shall not be consumed by grief's bitter cold sadness because we know your soul is at rest in a better place. But then again, we ask how and why we should bury our youngest sibling and not vice-versa. However, our ways are not God's ways and more also "He knows the way He taketh" and We will only have to walk with Him.

We thank God for the sixty-two years he lent you to us. We are grateful for all the joy and sorrow we shared together. We remember all the laughter We cherish the honest, caring and loving nature of you and We thank God for your life and the impact You made in on all of us,

Rest in Perfect Peace Naanaa
Rest in Perfect Peace Aunty Mavis
Rest in Perfect Peace Sister Densua

Till we meet again on that peaceful shore, we pray We are guided by the kindness and love you shared among us and the good things in life You helped us see, linger as lasting gifts that will sustain and comfort us.

Ya wo dzogbann Naa Densuaiiiii!!!! (TENA)

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
