During the annual Labor Day cookout where he enjoyed family time, this was a time where all whom did not call (check in) would get off of (His List) simply my giving him a hug and a kiss. *I lived my life the best I could,
I chose the path just like I should
The road has ended I see,
My soul and spirit have been set free
Those I left behind to mourn
The one I've helped and watched be born
My loved ones who I cherished so much
The one I leaned on they were my crutch
They were there in the last few days
The late nights over and overnight stays.
Now I must travel this road alone
With nothing to carry, but these old bones
Remember me for the good times and bad
Remember the smile I always had
These are the things to remember me for
I gave all I had and so much more
Appreciate the things life has to give
You are have just one life to live
So take this time to get it right
Before God takes away the light*
