Obituary

Mable Louise House-Faulk was born on July 28, 1935 to the late Louise and Charlie House in Greenville, NC. She departed this life on April 1, 2019 at her home in Newark, New Jersey.

Mable attended Public Schools in the South. She worked on a farm along with her sisters and brothers (she was the eldest of five). She also worked in the fields picking tobacco and cotton.

Mable worked at General Wholes until the mid 80's then she went into The Public School System and worked as a cook for The Headstart Program until her retirement.

Mable was a fun person to be around if you wanted to have a good time and always told the truth rather you liked it or not. Mable loved her church family (Brown's Chapel) where she has been a member since 1964. She loved to dance and her favorite song to dance to was Aly Us's "Follow Me". She also loved socializing and having fun. She lived her life to the fullest.

(Mable was married twice) in 1957, she married Joe Evans and moved to Newark, NJ from this union five children were born. Then in 1987 she married Ira J. Faulk until her death, she was the matriarch of her family, her children, her grandchildren and great-grandchildren which loved and adored her.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her husband Ira J. Faulk, her children Patricia, Pamela, and Micheal Evans all of Newark, NJ, Lovonne Adams of Bloomfield, NJ, Phyllis Stokes of Hillside, NJ and David House who preceded her in death. She also leaves behind two son in-laws, Ronnie Adams and the late Timothy Stokes as well as 16 grandchildren, 23 great-grand, her brother Wright House from Newark, NJ, sister Mary Washington of Atlanta, Georgia, her deceased younger brother Charlie Jr., recently departed sister Bernice Suggs and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.*
