Obituary

Lillian Louise Scales, affectionately known as “Louise” or “Stumpy”, 74, of Bronx, New York gained angelic wings on Friday, March 29, 2019. Louise was born in Danville, Virginia on June 30, 1944 to the late Jasper Scales and Dorothy James Scales.

Louise was the 7th child out of 15. She earned her nickname Stumpy because she was a petite, feisty and outspoken woman. When she had an opinion she let you know. She voiced it whether you wanted to hear the truth or not.

Louise received her education in Danville, Virginia public and high schools. She relocated to New York City, where she gave birth to three daughters and one son. Her daughter, Pamela Bowe preceded her in death.

Louise treasured her children and embraced every moment with them. She especially loved her role as Ma (grandma) and GiGi (great grandma). She was a strong matriarch to her family, and a good friend to all. Louise was the type of person who would fuss with you one minute but stand up with and or for you the next minute.

She leaves to cherish her in loving memory, 2 daughters, Benita and Monique and a son, Jay; 16 grandchildren, Daron, Ronald, James, Adam, Janita, Johnathan, Mentora, Shaquanna, Laquanda, Ebony, Edward, Imani, Shatia, Janique King, Janique Scales and Jaiayre, along with 9 great grandchildren. Louise also leaves cherished memories with 3 sisters, Peggy Lockett, Don Marie Scales and Gwendolyn Scales, 4 brothers, William Scales, James Scales, George Scales and Hanton Scales and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Louise will be greatly missed by all who knew her, for she was always a kind, giving and loving woman.

Sleep on “Stumpy” take your rest,
We love you, but God loved you best.

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil to give you an expected end.

Jer. 29:11 (KJV)
