Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

The late Mrs. Rachel N. Clark Hill was born on September 25, 1955 in Harper City, Maryland County, Liberia, West Africa unto the union of the late General David Koffa Clark and Mrs. Emma Bedell Clark. At the age of 63 she went on to be with the Lord on March 26, 2019.

In her early years Rachel attended primary and secondary school in Harper City, Maryland County. She went on to attend Our Lady of Fatima High School, where she graduated in December 1974. She then continued her education at the University of Abidjan, in Ivory Coast, majoring in English and French. Growing up a fun day for Rachel consisted of playing baseball, volleyball, kick ball, and tennis with her friends. She worked at Liberian Timber and Plywood Company as a secretary to the president of the company, at City Bank as a secretary for the operations manager, and at Liberia Telecommunications Corporations as a bilinguist. In 1986 she migrated to the United States and worked for the Financial Aid Office at SCS Business and Technical Institute. She later worked for several other companies, laying down roots at Hackensack University Medical Center as an Admissions Associate for 19 years.

Rachel was kindhearted, loving, generous and always willing to help out those in need, a nurturing mother, an extraordinary wife, family oriented, and a loving friend to many. Everyone around her knew she loved fufu & soup with okra. She loved to laugh, dance, and joke around. Rachel was the life of the party and loved taking pictures. She enjoyed traveling and exploring the world.

She leaves to mourn: her beloved husband of many years Mr. Emmett Hill, 4 children - Brenda Browne-Killen, Marilyn Browne, Aurelia Hill Goines, and Eburn Hill; 9 grandchildren – Ambrose, Maulinda, Leenette, Christian, Matthew, Joshua, Jr, Nyla, Jelani; great-granddaughter Amber; 14 siblings – Matilda Clark, Christina Clark Harmon, Theodosia Clark Wah, Francilla Clark Henry, Snotti Anna Clark Merchant, Francis J. Clark, Priscilla M. Clark, Sarah Clark, Cecelia Clark, Robert H. Clark, Ricardia W. Clark, William B. Clark, Emma Clark Glassco, Deontee Clark; proceeding her in death – Joe Dixon, Lawson N.
