Reflections of Life

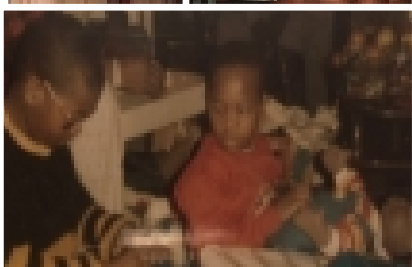

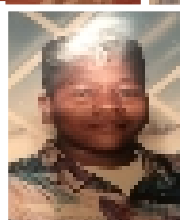

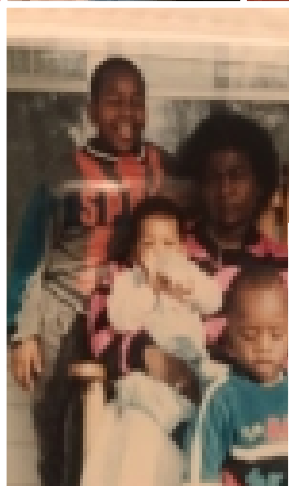

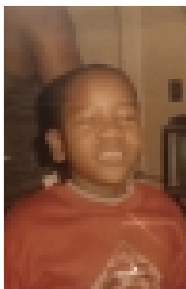

Jason Mullins passed away unexpectedly on April 3, 2019 in Newark, NJ. He was born and raised in Jersey City, NJ to Bessie Mae and the late Charles S. Mullins, SR.

Jason received his formal education in the Jersey City public school system and graduated from Snyder High School in 2000. Later on in life Jason attended Star Academy for medical assistance.

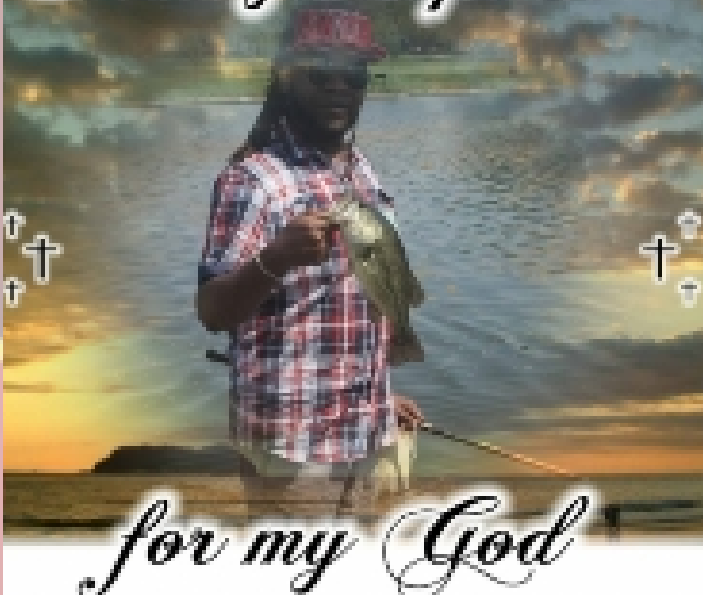

Jason devoted much of his time and energy to family and friends. His interest included fishing and cooking. Jason was an active member of the church community and sang in several choirs.

Jason is preceded in death by his father Charles S. Mullins, Sr and brother Antonio Mullins.

He leaves to cherish his memory: mother Bessie Mae Mullins, three brothers Andrew Mullins, Charles Mullins and Richard (Tasha) Mullins, four sisters; Courtney Brown, Jersey City, NJ, Bernice Carter, Newark, NJ, Kesha and Tamika Leak of Raleigh, NC, Godson Dion "Bam Bam" Ellison, Special friend Sa'Quan Baker-Bright, best friend Dee-Dee Johnson, fifteen nieces and nephews along with a host of other family and friends.

*As tears roll down my face,
I know you're in a better place.
I close my eyes to see your face,
Suddenly I feel a warm embrace.
With a smile so wide,
It brings tears to my eyes.
I try so hard not to cry,
All of my pain I cannot hide.
You always knew just what to say to anyone having a bad day
I don't know if I will ever understand,
But it must be apart of God's plan.
As I look up towards the blue sky, I imagine you spreading your wings to fly
Be sure to give your mom a sign.
So she knows you are in heaven and everything is fine
Tell everyone there I send my love to you,
all my angels up above
As the tears roll down my face,
I know you are in a better place*
