Obituary

Gregory Julius Monk, Sr. was born in Brooklyn, New York to Mary and Robert Monk on January 12, 1950.

Gregory was educated in the New York City Public School System, and he attended Canarsie High School in Brooklyn, NY. Gregory was married to Sharon Monk. He was employed at Coffee Senior Citizen Center, and was known as a dedicated worker. He was loved and greatly appreciated by his co-workers and the people he assisted.

Gregory will always be remembered as a great father, who loved and cared for his children. Throughout his life he taught them many valuable life lessons by demonstrating strength, courage and respect. He will be truly missed, but never forgotten.

Gregory is preceded in death by his parents, his two brothers and two sisters.

He is survived by: his three children, two sons and one daughter, Gregory Monk, Jr., Shanike Monk and Bruce Mobley; eight grandchildren, Savannah Monk, Haley Monk, Raekown Davis, Raymond Davis, Dynasty Monk, Damore Hamilton, Rashawn Davis and Kateland Mobley; four nieces, Keisha Monk, Laquever Deans, Collette Deans and Mary Deans; one nephew, Bryant Deans; and two grandnephews, Kawne and J-Kwon; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
