Obituary

Marie Carole Magloire was born in Port Au Prince Haiti on October 9, 1966. At an early age, she moved to Harlem, New York City with her mother Raymonde Pierre. She was the eldest of four siblings, Henry, Steven, Clifford, and Josephine.

Marie attended Our Lady Of Lourdes Catholic School and then went on to Mother Cabrini High School. She was a great cook and a long time employee at a hospital. She enjoyed helping people. Marie had a wonderful heart and truly loved everyone. She was friendly, loving, and caring to all. Even when she had a little, she would give her last to help someone. This has truly been Marie Magloire's personality throughout her life. She believed in God and always trusted in His word. She knew after every dark night there's a brighter day. Marie was very intelligent and always sharing her knowledge with people. She had a great sense of humor and great love for family and friends. Materialistic things never really impressed her. Her joy was in truly making other people happy. Her heart was full of love and compassion. Her smile and laughter would brighten up a room. She truly was a great mother, daughter, sister, and friend to many. Marie was always there to lend a helping hand when she could. She knew that showing love was one of the most important things a person can do in this world. May God bless her beautiful and loving soul. She will truly be missed and loved forever!

Marie Carole Magloire is survived through her children Lincoln Magloire, Sarah Magloire, Abraham Magloire, her mother Raymonde Pierre, her siblings Steven Ampah, Clifford Ampah, Josephine Magloire, grandchildren Arch Angel Cruz, Carolyn Cipriani, Abraham Magloire, and other family relatives Diamond and Jennifer Magloire, Mark Ampah, Josephine Ampah, Samuel Ampah, Margarete L. Dujour, Ygu Lazar, Yves Lazzarre, Marla Lazzarre, and Jimmy Louis.

*When you remember me,
Please do not weep.
My body may not be there.
It has chosen to sleep.
I'm not that far away.
My soul lives on,
Looking down, watching over
You and everyone.
And when you feel sad
And life seems so blue,
Just remember
That my spirit has its arms around you.
And on those special days,
Times that you wish I could see,
That cool breeze flowing past you...
Well, that will be me,
So don't be sad.
Have no fear.
God has taken me under his wing,
But I'll always be near.
I still watch you
Every minute, every day.
My love and soul are with you,
And that's where they will stay.*
