Obituary

Krege Lamont Hunt Sr., known to most as Brother Krege was born to Martin and Bertha (Wright) Hunt on November 12, 1955 in Newark, New Jersey. Maintaining a love for the Lord and his personal relationship with God, Krege was called home on Monday, April 15, 2019.

Krege was raised in the church, and was blessed to develop strong Christian beliefs and accept Jesus as his Lord and Savior. Krege was raised in Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, and as an adult he found his church home at Bethel Baptist Church where he served his Lord for about ten years.

Krege was educated in the city of Newark, New Jersey, where he attended Barringer High School. Krege enlisted in the Army National Guard where he served as a member for almost twenty years. Krege was also proud to be employed at EJ Brooks of Newark for many years. As an adult, Krege was proud to earn his diploma and then Associates Degree in Psychology from the University of Phoenix.

Although Krege maintained a very active and busy life, he never forgot about his community and his love for the church. Krege loved to share his unique baritone voice, while praising his Lord in the church choir. Singing for his Savior at an early age, Krege continued to show his passion for music throughout the years, and sang his final praises with Bethel Baptist Church's 8 am choir, 11 am Mass Choir, and Male Chorus. When not singing to the congregation, Krege continued to serve through his Bridging the Gap Minister Outreach Program started in 2002 at Bethel Baptist Church. He also worked to successfully branch this program to Mt. Olivet Baptist Church. Krege found joy in mentoring the children of the Bethel Safe Haven Program, which was another part of his Spiritual connection.

Krege never failed to offer his service to the Lord, he served as the Media Minister at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church and was honored to be Ordained as a Deacon. It was common knowledge that Krege was very handy. Any work his church home needed, Krege was who they would call. Krege has always been dedicated to his faith and his relationship with God.

Krege is survived by four children, sons, Lamont D. Hunt and Maurice Loyal; daughters, Dana M. Hunt and Nychole D. Hunt; eight grandchildren, best friend and brother for over thirty years, Robert Williams; uncle, Clarence B. Wright and eleven cousins. He is predeceased by mother, Bertha, father, Martin, sister, Marsha, brother, Edwyn, son, Krege Lamont Hunt Jr. and daughter, Aarika Nychole Hunt.

Krege will be missed by his friends and family, his sense of humor and laughter will live on forever.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
