Obituary

It was on March 2nd, 1948 the Lord allowed Bertha Millien and Martial Hector to birth their child Yves Joseph Hector. In the town and country that he was born, Legoune, Haiti, many people loved his sweet and kind demeanor. He was always a polite gentleman and many people admired his compassion towards others.

On September 1979 Yves migrated to Brooklyn, New York where he worked as a taxi driver. On August 1987 he married his former wife Yva Manou and they had two children Valerie and Yves Jr. As a strong believer in education, Yves diligently worked hard to ensure his children received the best education. He worked endless hours to put them through private school.

Many people can agree, there were many things Yves loved the most. First he admired Haitian food, his stay in Haiti, the beaches in Haiti, and listening to his radio every night to hear what was going on in Haiti. But that wasn't the only thing he admired. He loved his family dearly but most importantly he cherished his two children Valerie and Junior. Yves leaves behind his daughter Valerie Medas, son Yves Hector Jr., Son-In-law Lorenzo Medas, grandchildren Saniya Medas, Anthony Medas, Kylie Medas, Nia Medas, sisters, Raymond Hector, Gladys Hector, Carmelle Hector, Rosette Salnave, Irma Hector, Odette Hector, and his brothers Michel Hector and Carlo Hector and he will be reunited with his mother, father, sisters, and brothers in the presence of the Lord.

Yves Joseph Hector will never be forgotten. When a profound person physically leaves the Earth they leave a great legacy for the current and future generation. We are proud to say we have all learned something important from Yves. He always believed you should embrace who you are and live with love and care because life has so much to offer and we do not want to let a minute pass without enjoying it with those around you.

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made;
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Chorus:

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

When through the woods, and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees.
When I look down, from lofty mountain grandeur
And see the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

And when I think, that God, His Son not sparing;
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on a Cross, my burdens gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart.
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim: "My God, how great Thou art!"
