Richard Wilson, Jr. was born in Estill, South Carolina to the late Mr. and Mrs. Claretha and Isiah Wilson. Some of his family and friends called him “Jr.” Richard was born February 12, 1940, he entered into eternal rest May 26, 2019 at 1:18 a.m. in his home in Bronx, New York with his wife, Jessie by his side.

Richard attended the public school system in Estill, South Carolina, he was employed at Fordham University in the Bronx as a Maintenance Man until he retired.

Richard was baptized at an early age, he was a member of Thankful Baptist Church in Estill. He traveled to and from New York to Estill regularly. When he was in New York he attended Gethsemane Baptist Church in the Bronx with his wife.

Richard is preceded in death by his brothers, and sisters John Lee Wilson, Kate Thompson and James Curtis Wilson.

The Master Called

I’m sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I’m sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I’m resting here.
Yes, I’ve crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we’ll meet again someday.
