Obituary

Bishop Eugene Seay, Jr. was born September 7, 1931 in Lumpkin, Georgia to the late Eugene Seay, Sr. and Bessie Jones Seay.

He attended the public school system in Stewart County, Georgia. At an early age Bishop Seay came to know the Lord and was baptized at St. Elmo Baptist Church in Omaha, GA.

He was in the Armed Services, from 1953 to 1955. After returning from the service he worked in the construction field in Fort Benning, GA. He left Georgia and moved to Brooklyn, NY, where he started working at Robert Hall Clothing Factory, where he worked until he retired.

He was a member of Morning Star Church for many years and after leaving Morning Star Church he joined the Holy House of Prayer for All People, under the leadership of Pastor Paul Seay, where he met and married his devoted wife, Sis. Olga Seay and was ordained as a Deacon and then a Minister. In 2008 he moved his membership to Pilgrim Church, where he was elevated to Bishop in 2010, under the leadership of the late ArchBishop Roy E. Brown.

He had six brothers and one sister who preceded him in death, Robert, Oscar, Melvin, David, Sam, John and Eula and two great grandsons, Dar’rel Seay and Myzel Isom.

He leaves to cherish his memories his devoted wife, Olga Seay; his children, James Rudolph of Columbus, GA, Lonnzie (Dale), Brenda, Juanita, Yvetta of Providence, RI and Micheal of Queens, NY; ten grandchildren, Nakia, TaiRhonda, Nikita, Eric Jr., Tina, Eugene, Kamisha, Joseph, Philip, Keyon, Timothy; sixteen great grandchildren; one brother, Pastor Paul Seay (Annie) of Jamaica, NY; one sister, Vera Seay of Columbus, GA; three sisters-in-law, Claree Seay, Lumpkin, GA, Annie Seay (Pastor Paul Seay) of Jamaica, NY and Dora Seay of Columbus, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

I’m Free

Don’t grieve for me, for now I’m free
I’m following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life’s been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one’s touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don’t lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
