Obituary

Gladys Leonora Adolphus, was born in Belize March 27, 1931, to Doris Tillet and Charlie Adolphus (both deceased). From a young age, it was evident that Gladys was a sweet, caring, and compassionate angel; always willing and able to help others whole heartedly. That is a trait that she would carry with her all the days of her life. That trait, combined with her strong belief in God, and her amazing work ethic, would take her far in life.

Gladys was blessed with her four daughters, Lorna, Jean (deceased), Karen and Sharon, all who she had with Ray Fuller. She made sure that no matter the circumstances, or no matter the odd jobs, she did her absolute best to provide and care for her girls. The most important thing she taught them, was how to believe and pray to God. She taught them from a young age what it means to live by faith, not by sight.

During the early 90's, Gladys migrated to America, spending majority of her time between Chicago and New York. While in those cities, she lived with her daughters and helped when it came to raising her grandchildren. Gladys took the same approach, and kept the same principles from when she raised her girls, and applied it to raising her grandchildren. At the forefront of the teachings was God and his everlasting love. Just like with her girls, she taught her grandchildren to live by faith, and not by sight.

The greatest thing that can be said about Gladys is that she was loved and respected by all, and she loved and respected all.

Gladys is survived by her four daughters, Lorna, Jean (deceased), Karen and Sharon; her four sisters, Louise, Myrna, Pearline, and Maude; one brother, Bernard. She is also survived by her 17 grandchildren, and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
