Obituary

Beverly J. Foster was born on June 28, 1944 in Manhattan, New York. She was the oldest child born to David and Delores Warde.

Beverly attended P.S. 46 and Stitt Junior High School before going on to George Washington High School.

Beverly loved to dance. All through junior high school and high school she was always in the dance club, almost every weekend her and her friends were off to some latin dance. She loved her music, listening for hours. If she bought a new record she would play it over and over driving everybody crazy. After hearing it 100 times she would get the words wrong.

Beverly retired from the hotel industry in 2014.

Beverly was preceded in death by her son, Christopher. She leaves to mourn her passing: her children, Micheal, Lisa, Linda and Lowell; daughter-in-law, Nicole; grandchildren, James, Julian, Natasha, Corey, Alexandra, Tia, Eric, Johnathan, Michael, and Aubree; brothers, David and Melvin; sister-in-law, Michelle; nieces, Laverne, Melanie, Obriana and Delores; nephews, Brian and Damel; as well as other family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
