Obituary

Clinton Kennedy was born August 30th 1960 in Manchester, Jamaica, WI. He was the son James Kennedy and Mavis Bryant. He was the True definition of a “Real” friend to anyone who knew him. To many to even mention! On Sunday, June 9th, 2019. He was called home to walk side by side with the Master above, kind of what was displayed with him and Moochie! “His Right Hand”

Kennedy grew up in Jamaica, but spent most of his adult life in Newark, NJ, making sure that the people he loved and cherished never needed for anything whether it was food, transportation, money, clothing whatever you name it and he’ll try his very best to make sure those in need would have it. He showed and gave the love he never received growing up in the Island of Jamaica.

Kennedy displayed strength, bravery and still managed to keep everyone he could smiling knowing that his everyday life consisted of working to provide for his family and loved one’s. It’s sad to say but he will be truly missed by everyone he encountered!

Kennedy enjoyed cooking, music, making sure things were clean and keeping a smile on other people faces. He had a place in his heart for everyone. He was blessed with the ability to make people laugh and was known to be a man with a huge heart, someone who barely said “NO” no matter what, someone you can truly depend on, genuine and reliable.

Kennedy leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Renee Brown; his sons, Jermaine Kennedy of Manchester, Jamaica, Andrew Kennedy of Newark, NJ; his beautiful and loving daughter, Alicia Kennedy of Newark, NJ; his three brothers, three sisters, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends to whom he gave lots of love. He loved making sure his children was provided for.

I love and miss you dearly dad. Gone but will never be forgotten forever with us in spirit. Rest Easy KING!
