Life Reflections

Bettye Jane Wilson-King was born on June 3, 1952 in Bishopville, South Carolina, daughter of the late Paris and Annie Wilson. Bettye was one of thirteen children. She attended Bishopville High School and graduated in 1973. Bettye moved to New York to pursue her career in the financial district.

She was employed as a Supervisor of the Lock Box Department at the Bank of New York in New York for more than 25 years before retiring.

Bettye was a faithful member of Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church where she sung in the Senior Choir.

She was a loving and caring person who enjoyed being around her family. Bettye loved to shop, cook some of her specialties and bake peach cobbler, macaroni and cheese and cakes.

Bettye was predeceased by her nine siblings.

On Tuesday, June 18, 2019, Bettye entered into eternal rest at John F. Kennedy Medical Center in Edison.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, her loving husband of 38 years, Frank C. King; two children: Babatunde Wilson (Keisha) and Sakisha King; three brothers: John T. Wilson, Samuel Wilson (Dorothy) and Frampton T. Wilson; grandson: Jahsan Wilson; two sisters-in-law: Janice Wilson and May Wilson; two brothers-in-law, James Felder and Richard Marshall; and a host of dear relatives and friends.

He knew you were in pain, he knew that you would Never be well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids and Whispered, "Peace be thine."

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.*

*He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*
