Obituary

Margaret “Nanny” Scott was born Margaret Louise Henderson on January 28, 1935 in Darlington County S.C. to the late Homer and Robbie Henderson.

Margret received her education in the Darlington School System. She graduated from Butler High School and attended Hampton University in Virginia.

She married her childhood sweetheart Willard Scott. Of this union four children were born, Daniel W. Scott, Teresa L. Scott, the late Ruth L. Scott, and Audrey L. Scott. Later they were blessed with two more children Jalisa L. Scott and Douglas A. Scott.

They relocated to New York City where she became a teacher at P.S. 165 in Manhattan. She later taught at Columbia University in The CEEP- Community Educational Exchange Program for Continued Education. She was a licensed agent at Lovell Real Estate for over 15yrs. As well as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, & surrogate mother to all who needed one. She loved the arts, played piano, the drums, and guitar. She also had a passion for writing. She loved the lord, as a young child she was baptized at Centenary United Methodist Church, Hartsville S.C, Southern Baptist Church New York N.Y, One Way Church of Christ, Queens NY, where she served on the missionary board and was a prayer warrior. She was a community activist who touched many lives in every community she lived. She was loved by all and will be greatly missed. Her mark on this world and her memories will last forever.

She was preceded in death by two siblings; brother Gregory Boone; sister Barbara Greene; and daughter, Ruth (Jeanie) Scott.

She leaves behind her loving husband of 70 years, Willard Scott, her children; Daniel W. Scott, Teresa L. Scott, Audrey L. Scott, Jalisa L. Scott, and Douglas A. Scott, grandchildren; Tanefa, Jamison, Sheron, Karima, Yuri, Ivory, Danielle, Tia, Zakiyah, Trécii, Zion, and Mason, 24 great grands, and a host of godchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends.
