Obituary

On October 9, 1955 a baby boy was born named Jeffrey Williams to Nathaniel Sr. and Lucretia S. Williams at Harlem Hospital. He was number four for the Williams family.

Jeffrey heard a voice that said, "it's time to come to your Father in Heaven" on July 2, 2019 at Harlem Hospital.

Jeffrey was educated in the New York Public School system, where he received his High School Diploma. After high school, he worked at Big Apple Supermarket, and from there he started doing construction work.

Jeff was the person if you needed something and he had it—it was yours. He loved to sing and had a good joke to tell you. He always said, "I have a gift for you."

Jeffrey was the Mayor of Harlem, no matter where he was someone would say, "Jeff" or "BoDean".

Jeffrey was an early person, when the sun came up it was time to get up and read the newspaper. He grew up in the St. Nicholas Houses.

He leaves to mourn: one son, Johnny; his father, Nathaniel Sr.; one brother, Nathaniel Jr. (Alicia); three sisters, Denise, Cheryl and Annette Williams; one uncle, Fredrick Screen (Rhonda); four nieces, LaShana, Nicole, Ebony and Ivy; five nephews, Taran, Nathaniel, Jamel; Danquan and Idris; and many great nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and the St. Nicholas Community.

Jeffrey was preceded in death by his mother, Lucretia S. Williams; and two sisters, Patricia and Celeste Williams.

A FALLEN LIMB

*A Limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me"
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
the good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small,
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep your chin up
Until the day comes we're together again.*
