Obituary

Jeano Semolia Porter's journey began on April 30, 1964 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Pecolia and Robert Porter, Sr. Jeano was the 5th child of six children: Connie, Barbara, Robert, Renee, Jeano, and Cydell. He began his education at Hawthorne Elementary School and then went on to Weequahic High School.

During Jeano's earlier years, he worked as a mechanic. He was a very skillful person. He also enjoyed fishing, bingo, cooking, drinking coffee, and spending time with family and friends. Jeano was an outgoing, strong-willed person who easily made friends. He would help anyone in need. One of his ways of showing his love for others was by baking cakes. Regardless of his illness, he was a fighter who overcame surgery after surgery, year after year, until the Lord called him home on July 12, 2019.

Jeano leaves to mourn his wife Jamillah and children, Briana, Jeano Jr., Ka-Vaughn, and Dante. He also leaves his siblings, Connie, Barbara (Kysan), Robert, Renee, and Cydell (Derrick); brothers-in-law, Al-Lateef (Janette), John, Raymond (Harriet), Leonard (Genika), Hakim (Kim), Chris, Charles (Juanita), and Carnell Jr.; sisters-in-law, Crystal, Yvette (Charles), Cheray, and Sharonda (Alex), along with a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, aunts, uncles, godchildren, and friends.

Rest in Heaven Jeano Semolia Porter
