Obituary

Marion E. Scott, affectionately known as “Mama” was born on September 11, 1926 in Hanover, Jamaica. She migrated here to the United States in October of 1976, residing in East Orange for over 35 years.

While in Jamaica, she worked in the field of hospitality services and continued to do so after emigrating. She worked very hard to provide for her daughters Salome Singh and Cheryl Bryant.

She was the matriarch of the family. Marion had a heart of gold and was a very family-oriented person. She helped raised her grandchildren and played a pivotal role in all their lives. She loved her family very much and there’s nothing she would not do to help whenever she could. Mama was a tough, no frills lady but fair. She lived simply but was proud. The things she treasured the most were her family, her privacy and a good cup of tea. She was extremely smart, caring, loving, strong and funny.

She had a great sense of humor and was a woman of many talents. Mama could discuss current affairs with anyone, was one of the BEST cooks and a great seamstress. She always loved reading the Star Ledger and Bible. She had a strong belief in God. She passed down her belief in God to her daughters and grandchildren.

Marion passed away peacefully in her sleep at home in East Orange with her family on August 2, 2019. Mama was loved by all her family and those who knew her. She will be missed dearly, but her legacy will remain alive through her daughter, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Marion is preceded in death by her daughter Cheryl Bryant and son-in-law Evan Simpson.

She is survived by her daughter Salome Singh and grandchildren Dr. Mark Whyte, Alison Robertson, Julie Simpson, Charmalee Simpson, Samantha Washington, Michele Bryant, Marsha Simpson and great-grandchildren Ryan Robertson, Brianna Pulliam, Taveon Ceasar Pulliam, Jasmin Roach, Nathaniel Simpson, Matthew Roach and Arianna Walker. Mama was the BEST mother and grandmother anyone could have asked for and the family is blessed to have had her. She will live on in the hearts of her daughter, grandchildren, family and friends who knew and loved her.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
