OBITUARY

Elton Maxwell was born on April 14, 1956 in Charleston, South Carolina to the late Leroy Askins and Elizabeth Maxwell.

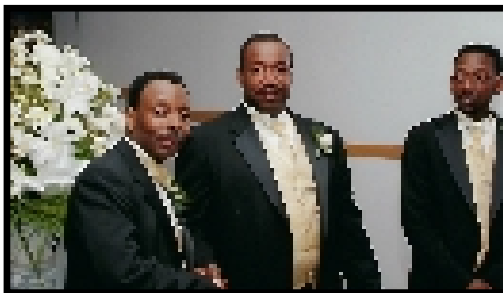

Elton Maxwell and Sharon Hoskins had two beautiful daughters, Latifa Hoskins and Shaheerah Hoskins; and three grandchildren, Kaleema Hoskins, Damir Porch, and Aaliyah Hoskins.

Elton attended Public School 68, Junior High School "Stitt", Charles Evan Hughes High School, and eventually he left to go into Job Corps. Elton Maxwell had numerous jobs, he worked for New York City Park Department, Printer Company, Cook at Dinosaur Restaurant, GAP Clothing Store, and painter until he fell sick.

Elton loved to be with family and friends. He enjoyed being around people and especially telling them how he grew up. He would tell you that he was 'old school' and wouldn't change for nothing in the world. Elton also known as "EL" to all his family and friends. Everyone always had kind words about him no matter what.

Elton leaves to cherish his memories: his daughters, Latifa Hoskins and Shaheeha Hoskins; three grandchildren, Kaleema Hoskins, Damir Porch and Aaliyah Hoskins; his sisters, Lori Moon, Deborah Pope, Marlene Santos, Gwen Askins, Sophia Askins, and Sabrina Askins Jones; his brothers, Stephan "Mousie" Maxwell, Jacob "Poochie" Maxwell, Leroy Askins, Delroy Askins, and Antonia Askins; his step-mother, Frances Askins; uncle, Joseph Wilson; aunt, Catherine Scott; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends including his 123rd Street Crew: Teamus, Willie, and Rome.

Elton will be deeply missed by many who will keep alive his spirit for life and his love for family and friends.

MY BROTHER "ELTON MAXWELL"

Elton, you was one of a kind. You was Elton. I'm so happy you was my brother. I'm going to miss you so much. Brother my heart is hurting. I'm going to miss your JJ smile, laughing, and dancing. You put me on to all the Old School Music. Elton would be in my living room thinking he was David Ruffin from the Temptations. His song was "Walk Away From Love". He was so serious when he was singing, we had so much fun. That's my Elton. It was so hard seeing you leaving us. God has you now in a better place. Elton you will always tell me, "Lori you're all I got". I always told Elton, "regardless of everything, you're my brother and I love you." One thing Elton knew was when I was upset with him. He said, "Lori, I didn't come to the house are call you until you calmed down." I would be laughing on the inside to myself. "I knew to stay away because my sister was about to knock me out." I was Elton's second mother, if he didn't hear from me, boy I'd be in trouble. That's my Elton. May your soul Rest In Peace.

From: Lori "Chocolate" Moon
