Obituary

Patricia Thompson-Harvey, aged 64, passed away on August 23, 2019 after a valiant battle with lung cancer.

Patricia was born on August 5, 1955 to Harry Willis, Sr. and Hazel J. Willis in Far Rockaway, New York. She was the only girl born to her parents and she had four other siblings, Harry Willis, Sr., Jim Willis, Charles "Muscles" Willis and Rick Willis. Charles and Rick preceded her in death.

As a child, she was educated in the New York City school system in both Far Rockaway and Jamaica Queens. She would attend both Toro College and the College of New Rochelle.

Pat gave birth to two children, Monica Scott and Eddie Thompson, III. During this time, she began working at Elmhurst Hospital Center where her mother, Hazel J. Willis was also employed. Most recently, Pat worked for H & R Block as a receptionist.

Everyone knows that Pat was a sharp dresser with an impeccable sense of style. She was one of those people that got dressed up to go to the mall just in case she ran into someone she hadn't seen in years. That person wasn't going to be able to say, ooh, I saw Pat and she looked bad. She was going to look good at all times.

Speaking of sharp dressers, she met John Harvey who would become her husband after a long courtship. John will wear a suit to play Lotto in the mall just like Pat. Their sense of style is only one of the many things they had in common and attracted them to each other. They loved each other dearly and decided they wanted to spend the rest of their lives together so...

Pat and John were married on August 13, 2016, with over 100 family and friends in attendance. She was so happy that day and looked beautiful.

Besides being a stylish woman, Pat was an avid reader and loved to travel. But, most importantly, she loved her family fiercely. She was a devoted mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend to many.

Pat was preceded in death by her parents, Harry Sr. and Hazel, as well as her brothers, Charles and Rick. She is survived by her devoted husband, John Harvey; her brothers, Harry Willis, Jr. (sister-in-law, Theresa Willis) and Jim Willis; her children, Monica Scott and Eddie Thompson, III (daughter-in-law, Lisa Thompson), John Harvey, III and Tory Harvey; grandchildren, Eddie Martin Thompson, IV, Joy Jean-Roslyn Thompson, John Aden Harvey, Tory Harvey, Jr. and Milan Harvey.

There are also some very special little ones that will miss her. They are Kye Glover-Tate, Mya Mauney, JJ Spencer and Dylan Bennett, Najon Williams, Bella Williams, Justin Williams, Mason Lopez and Layla Whitley.

Also left to mourn is a special young man who always made Pat smile, Tymel Franklin.

She has a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces as and nephews; and a host of other family and many, many friends.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life. This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
