Celebration of life

Edward George was born in Twiggs County, Georgia to the late Ephraim and Josie Lee Moss George on February 20, 1938. He was educated in the Twiggs County School system. Edward was the fifth child of eight siblings.

He was preceded in death by his siblings, William George, Arthur George, John George, and Eva Glover. Edward committed his life to Christ at an early age and joined the Chance Hill Baptist Church. He met and married his lovely wife Louise C. George of 60 years. To this union were born four beautiful children. His first son Edward L. preceded him in death.

Edward moved his family to New York in the early 1960's. He worked as a Master Automotive Mechanic at General Motors Corporation from 1964 until he retired in 1993.

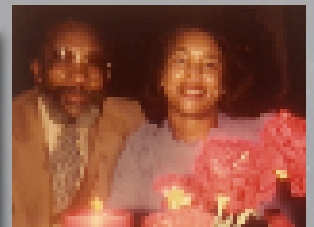

In his free time, he also worked as a union representative for United Auto Workers Local 259. Edward was a handyman; he could fix or repair almost anything. He found joy in helping friends, neighbors, and especially family. Adept with his hands, he was always busy repairing or crafting things to make someone's life easier. He believed in giving to others without being asked, and he instilled those same morals in his children. Edward loved his family more than anything. He also enjoyed cooking for them, spending hours both in the kitchen and on the grill, preparing the food to perfection every time. He was also well known for telling jokes and riddles. His joyous spirit will forever be missed.

Edward leaves to cherish his precious memories, his wife; Louise George; his children, Edwina George, Ephraim George, Eric George, and Rodney Grant (Step son). Three sisters, Seretha Cooper, Lois Jackson of Macon Georgia, Laverna Barber of Conley, Georgia. Three sisters-in-law, Lena Bond, Elenora Asbell, and Shirley Vincent. Six brothers-in-law, John Cornelius, George Cornelius, Calvin Vincent, Reverend Johnny Wilburn, James Asbell, and Willie Barber of Macon, Georgia. Edward has 10 grandchildren. Malia, Eric, Edward (Teddy), Jalen, Ephraim, David, Brianna, Erica, Ian, and Ephraim (EJ). Host of nieces, nephews and cousins. He was loved by family and friends.

A Successful Man

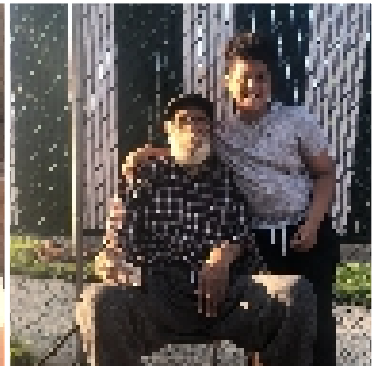

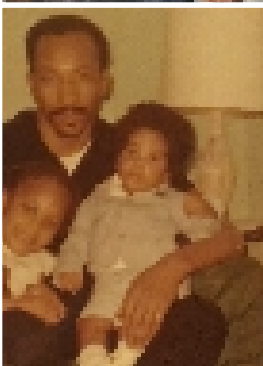

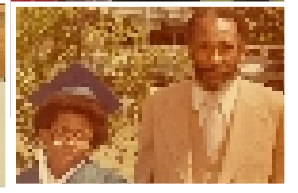

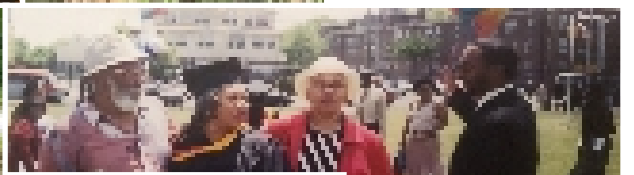

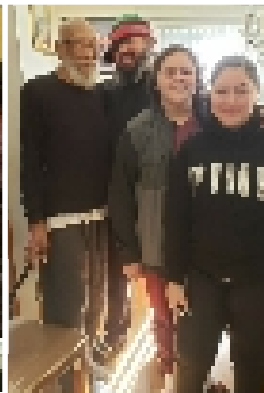

The man is a success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who leaves the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had.

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
