Obituary

Marie Reanne Cheatham (Berry), was born on November 23rd 1957 to Addie Eva and Willie Cheatham in Yazoo City, Mississippi. She was the baby of 9 other siblings. Approaching her preteens, she moved to the Bronx, New York where she remained for the duration of her life.

After her schooling, she began to explore life and worked several jobs; her favorite being Bloomingdales. She was a proud employee and dedicated 20 years of service there where she had no trouble in finding deals for anyone! Marie was a very loving woman that will truly be missed by all. She was a true pillar of her home church and a dedicated member. Nothing came between her and the Lord. This was her second home away from home; Church being first. Marie loved to shop at any cost! Nothing was spared! Baking was her second favorite activity when she wasn't shopping. Baking cakes and cookies were here specialty.

Marie leaves behind to cherish her memory, her only daughter, Cashella Cheatham, her four grandchildren Kabaysha, Kanaisha, Joshua and Jamia. Marie also was a great grandmother of Jaylen Sincere Cheatham and unborn, Blossom Marie Cheatham. Further survived by her dear sisters Dorothy (Kato) Hayes and Mauldine (Lee) Smith. Two brothers, Willie James Cheatham and Andrew Cheatham and a host of nieces and nephews.

BENEDICTION

Private Burial

Saturday, September 7th 2019
St. Peter's Greek Catholic Cemetery
Garfield, New Jersey

If you see my mom in heaven,
She won't be hard to find.
She's God's masterpiece of Motherhood.

She's unique and one of a kind.
She'll be the one with the prettiest
Smile.

Her angel wings she wears with pride,
And as she reaches out to greet you,
You'll see the twinkle in her eyes.
She'll be digging in God's flower beds,
Gathering flowers as she goes.

She'll pick a single flower bouquet:
The beauty of God's red rose.

She'll be playing with the smallest angels,
Singing joyful games upon her knee,
Or maybe writing words of wisdom,
Or reciting a poem or three.

She's with her mom and dad now,
Embracing them lovingly or
Visiting with her long-lost friends,
Chatting so happily.

She'll be God's strongest angel.
No more burdens will she bear.

She'll stroll about with strength and grace,
Kneeling with God in prayer.

So if you see my mom in heaven,
Will you take care of her for me?

Place a kiss upon her cheek,
And hug her just for me.

You see, she was my special mom,
The truest friend she was to me.

She taught me all about our God
And the love he had for me.

She's my royal queen of mothers.
She'll wear her very own crown.

She'll sit and share God's golden
Throne in God's beautiful
Heavenly home.
