Obituary

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build up; A time to weep and time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance.”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-4

Judine Juliet Oglesby was born on July 11, 1960 to Adeline Marshall and the late Ronald McDonald in Kingston, Jamaica W.I. At the tender age of 12, Judine and her siblings migrated to the United States of America to live with their mother in St. Albans, N.Y. She attended IS 192 and Andrew Jackson High School.

After graduating high school, Judine attended the Wilfred Academy Beauty School where she became a certified beautician. She worked at Miracles Hair Salon in St. Albans where she excelled and was the go-to stylist for weaves and extensions.

Judine married her childhood sweetheart, Carl Olgesby and this union produced two children, Carl Jr. and Tynetta Olgesby.

Aside from being a hairstylist, Judine loved gardening and landscaping. She would often share produce, such as callaloo, tomato, pepper and cucumber from her summer garden. She also loved to cook and was excellent at it, often hosting family cook-outs and was the life of any event.

Judine was very friendly, kind and caring, even to strangers. She would do all she could to help anyone in any situation. If you needed a ride, she'd take you, if you needed a dollar, she would give it, if you needed charcoal or anything else for your family cookout she would supply it.

She made sure to connect with her friends and family; she would call you for the holidays and always ended the call with “I Love You.” These are just a few of the small things that made her beautiful along with her warm and loving smile.

Like everyone else, Judine had her share of life challenges and she recognized that Jesus was her redeemer. On May 15, 2016, Judine cast her cares on the Lord and was baptized by Deacon Ransford Gayle at UAC under the leadership of Bishop Michael Edwards and Min. Charles Barrett.

She leaves to cherish her memories; her beloved mother, Adeline Marshall; Carl Olgesby Sr; son Carl Olgesby Jr.; daughter Tynetta Olgesby; her wonderful grandchildren - Frank Angeletti; Serenidy Olgesby; Alayah Danvers and Jade Olgesby. Her beloved siblings, Clive (Romie) McDonald; Joy McDonald, Joan Francis and Debbie McDonald Charles; nieces Ericka Smith, Chanel McDonald and Tiffany McDonald; nephew, Trevaugh Payne; three aunts, a whole host of loving cousins; in-laws, friends, Kenrick Thorpe, Bernard Henry, Andrea Blythe and Val Forman.

Judine will be sadly missed by all whom she encountered.

May she rest in peace!

Interment All Souls Cemetery, Queens, NY

Don't Cry

I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep
So, there's no reason for you to weep

This is a debt we all must pay
It is a sweet and peaceful way

I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow
Now, I don't have to worry about tomorrow

But life for you must go on
You must not worry because I'm gone

You stood beside me all the way
When I was down you knew what to say

Now it's time for me to get some rest
Let me sleep now; I've done my best

So please now let me rest in peace
The tears you are shedding soon will cease

You'll soon realize that this was meant to be
And I thank the Lord for Calvary
