Obituary

Flavia aka “Virginie “Edward was born on In La-Haut, Saint Lucia on May 7, 1964 to the late Antoine and Theresa Edward. She departed this life on August 30, 2019 at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York.

She leaves to cherish her memories: daughters Kady Edward and Samantha Simon, Grandchildren: Brittany Edward, Ethan Simon and Paige Simon; Siblings: Patricia Edward, Regis Edward, Gina Edward, Gene Edward, Dunstan Edward, Gregor Edward, David Edward, Patrick Edward, Magdalene Eugene, Felix Anatole , Daniel Edward, Lister Gabriel and many other relatives and friends. Flavia was preceded in death by her brother Trini Edward.

Known for her kind soul and generous spirit, Virginie was always invested in the welfare of others. She offered patience, warmth and tenderness to any relationship cultivated and always led with an understanding heart. Throughout her entire life, Virginie represented a strong-willed and headstrong woman who couldn't be knocked down, no matter the battle. She was very family-oriented and inevitably saw the best in everyone. She mostly enjoyed hosting family events, baking sweet treats, cooking , all things skin care and exploring everything the world had to offer her.

When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not there to see; If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today; While thinking of the many things, We didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you; And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand. She said my place was ready, In heaven far above; And that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye; For all my life, I'd always thought I didn't want to die. I had so much to live for, So much yet to do; It seemed almost impossible, That I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, The good ones and the bad; I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had. If I could relive yesterday, Just even for awhile, I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile. But then I fully realized that this could never be; For emptiness and memories would take the place of me. And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow; I thought of you, and when I did, My heart was filled with sorrow. But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home; When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne. He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you; Today your life on earth is past, but here it all starts anew." "I promise no tomorrow, But today will always last; And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past." "But you have been so faithful, So trusting and so true; Though at times you did do things, you knew you shouldn't do." "But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free; So won't you take my hand, and share my life with me?" So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
