Life Reflections

Albert “Champ” Threatt, Jr., affectionately known as “Champ” because he was born a “preemie” and was named by Uncle Rufus, was born on Christmas Day in 1960 in Brooklyn, New York at Kings County Hospital. He was the son of Loretta Threatt and the late Albert N. Threatt, Sr. As a youth, he attended PS 135 in Brooklyn, New York and I.S. 51 Middle School. After he graduated from Port Richmond High School both in Staten Island in 1979, Champ enlisted in the United States Army and received an honorable discharge in 1982.

He worked at various jobs in NYCHA, New York City Transit Authority, Local Window Cleaning Union and South Shore Mental Health Association.

In 1984, Champ married Celeste Haynes and with this union two children were born. He loved all his children and grandchildren. He was a good caretaker and nurturer. Champ enjoyed cooking for any and everybody, especially BBQ. He also enjoyed attending the local basketball games in the Big Park at St. Theresa’s anywhere he can yell from the side lines. He also loved all kinds of music and would bust a move like it gave him life. Champ was also a “fashionista” sometimes and he would change his clothes up to three times a day and HATS! He had hats for days. His hats can express how he was feeling that day.

On Friday, September 6, 2019, Champ was called home. He will be missed by many with his knowledge that he always shared his opinions even (if you didn’t want them) and his services to the church and the community.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his loving mother, Loretta Shephard; stepfather, Russel Shephard; grandmother, Gelilah McCullers; four daughters: Shawneequa Threatt, Natavia Threatt, Taneya Manora and Tiffany Manora; three sons: Albert Threatt III, Dozjah Threatt and Bobby Manora; one brother, Frederick Threatt (Detra); three sisters: Geraldine Threatt, Brenda Threatt and Darlene Threatt-Rice and Babette Hafeez (Yuhanna); seven grandchildren: Jaelin, Samir, Isa, Takai, Marcus, Nayana and Tashai; twelve nieces and nephews; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, friends and church family.

There will only be one Champ a.k.a. Albert Threatt. He will be greatly missed.

*"I'm glad you knew that you could always count on me to have your back.
God has your back now. God's got you."*
