Obituary

Neoptoleme Cesaire was born in Pilate, Haiti to proud parents of Lucie Cesaire and Mathieu Cesaire on May 16, 1925. He was the third child out of four children.

He was a professional barber, a wonderful parent to five wonderful kids, an outstanding friend, an excellent grandfather, a great husband, and a faithful child of God. He was always full of life. He always had a smile on his face. He loved to help anyone in need.

He married a woman name Marie Rosana Cesaire who passed away October 11, 2008. Now they are both together in heaven living in peace with God and family.

He leaves mourning: his loving children Marie Lucie Cesaire (and her family), Marie Marcelin (and her family), Kenol Cesaire (and his family), Mimose Cesaire (and her family), and Bernard Cesaire (and his family); his seven grandchildren; other relatives and friends.

Hymn 404

1 Sailors on a journey Towards the eternal edge, If there is a storm,
Think of the soft shore; (bis) Chorus Our port, (bis) is in heaven;
Our port, (bis) is in heaven; Our port is in heaven! (bis)

2 That nothing drifts us Towards temporal goods,
Their peace is fleeting; Only seek one bank; (bis)

3 On Jesus, sweet star Immortal brilliance,
That nothing ever veil, Let's lead our veil; (bis)

4 To whom he second With a fraternal look, What does the wind or the wave do? In vain the ocean roars; (bis) Chorus When port, (bis) is in heaven; When port, (bis) is in heaven; When port is in heaven! (bis)

Hymn 399

1. I know a country beyond the blue sky, Where all the blessed will be with God, In perfect rest, the delightful stay; There, no more cruel mourning, pain, torment. Chorus In the house up there, Where will I be soon, Nothing will disturb more
The happiness of the elect.

2 I know a palace in the holy city, Full of ineffable charm and bliss, Where Jesus entered for a long time already, And in his sweet courts, my God will introduce me.

3 I know a shoreline where the hurricane is no longer Where all is full peace, for the port is Jesus; No threatening flow reaches the redeemed, In the heavenly shelter, far from the restless world.

4 I know a hymn sung in heaven, It is the song of the Lamb that sounds joyful; O sublime harmony, O glorious transport, Soon I will hear him, how happy he is, my lot!
