Obituary

ANNIE MAE AARON was born on March 1, 1925 in Orangeburg County, South Carolina. She was the youngest beloved daughter of the late Marion and Maryann Wright, and married to Isiah Aaron (March 3, 1957). Annie went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, September 21, 2019. Her loving daughter was by her side.

Young Annie, desiring a better life than the South could offer, was brought to New York City by her older sister; the late Rev. Drucilla Fordham, who provided her with the love and guidance she needed, as well as supporting her with the rearing of her three children.

Annie, while witnessing the love and zeal her sister had for serving the True and Living God was inspired to accept Christ into her life.

When Christ Temple Baptist Church was organized in 1952 by her sister (Rev. D. Fordham) she was one of the first founding members. Annie worked and served in many ministries over the years. Being a woman of God who was willing and ready to share her love, wisdom and guidance with others, she was chosen and consecrated as Mother of Christ Temple Baptist Church.

Mother Annie Aaron was preceded in death by her husband (Isiah Aaron) and her two sons (David, Jr. and Frankie Wetstone).

Those left of cherish fond and precious memories of Annie Mae are: her loving daughter, Carrie and son-in-law, Charles Anderson; daughter-in-law, Diane Wetstone; seven grandchildren, Timothy (Elizabeth), Kevin (Elizabeth), Channon, David III, Stewart and Crystal (Sheldon); seventeen great-grands; four great-great grands; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and dear friends. TO KNOW HER WAS TO LOVE HER.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
