Obsequies

Linda Jean Sifford was born on July 3, 1949 in Jersey City, New Jersey to Naomi Suber Kelly and the late Abraham Kelly. She was one of two children blessed to this union.

Linda was loved life and all those that were in her life. She was constantly on the go. She loved taking bus rides to many destinations. The more unique the greater the anticipation of unforgettable enjoyment she would receive.

Linda enjoy good music. She would get her dance moves on in a heartbeat. It was simply a joy to be around her. To know her was to love her. Just walking through the door would bring a smile to many faces. There isn't anyone around that could say that Linda let grass grow under her feet. If there was a good movie in the theaters just call Linda chances are she was there and viewed it first. She would give honest reviews.

Linda was love, just pure pleasurable love. One of her greatest past times were shopping for her grandson and her great-granddaughter. The time spent with them was immeasurable and it meant so much to her.

Linda's faith in God was strong. She believed in the power of prayer. If someone did her wrong or anyone for that matter, trust and believe when Linda would say, "Leave it in God's hands, there's nothing you can do."

Well on September 23, 2019 Linda made her heavenly transition home. She is now "in God's hands, there's nothing any of us can do, except, accept God's will and say.....Amen.

Linda will continue to live in the hearts and minds of all those she loved, and those that loved her loving and caring daughter Dabria Gordon(Robert Norwood); grandchildren D'Andrea Gordon, Ashante' Norwood and Aniah Norwood; great-granddaughter Thea McQueen-Norwood; mother Naomi Kelly and the late Abraham Kelly beloved sister of Debra Stevens and a host of other loving relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her father Abraham Kelly.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
