Obituary

Lillian Inez Hayden-Adams, 72, was born in Brooklyn, New York and passed on September 24, 2019. Lillian was born to Elizabeth Virginia Gray and Alphonso Willie Hayden on October 15, 1946.

Lillian was educated in New York City, she went to public school, high school and went on to college. She graduated with a bachelor's degree; and with honors and with many other certificates and awards.

Before her untimely death Lillian enjoyed going to church, singing and studying the word of God. And she shared her love of God with her children, grands, great grands, her siblings and with those she came in contact with.

Lillian Inez Adams leaves to cherish her memory: her seven children, Pastor Elizabeth Rivers, Subrena K. Hayden, Raquel A. Joyner, Kevin B. Hayden, Walter R. Hayden, Andre V. Hayden and Jermaine L. Morrison; five siblings, Wilfred Stevens, Nillie Gifford, Aletha Hayden, Michelle Hayden and Darrell Gray; two sisters-in-law, Toni Stevens and Suzanne Gray; twenty-five grands; twenty-two great grands; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

May God bless you all.

Amen

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down,
and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep,
and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.
What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?
I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.
He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.
