Obituary

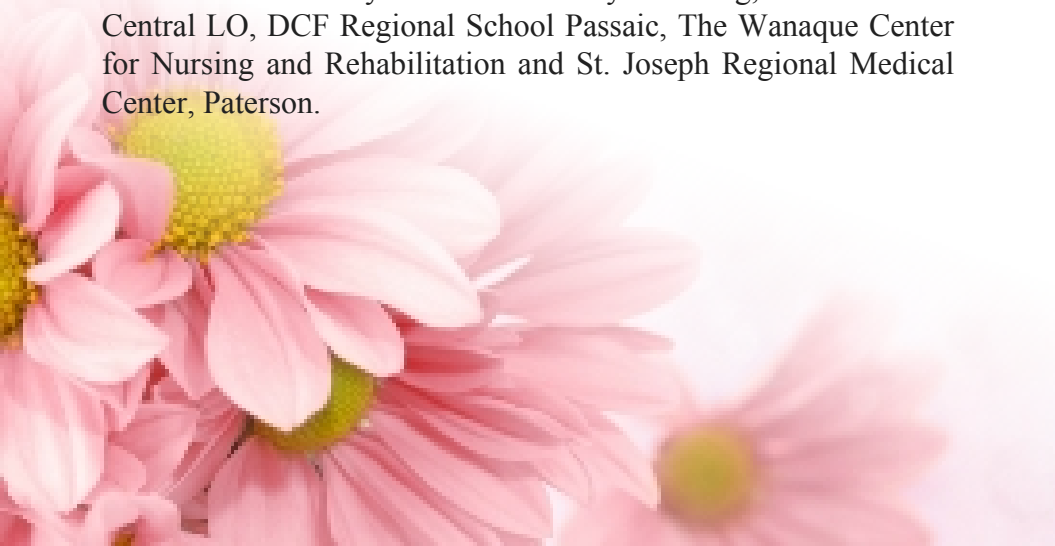

Celine Blessing Anyanwu was born to the family of late Mr. Charles Anyanwu and Mrs. Gloria Oyenwuenyi on 10/16/2000 at Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch, NJ. Celine went to rest with the Lord on 09/13/2019.

She was one of a set of twin females. She was a high-spirited person. She presented with significant visual and auditory deficit requiring her early admission to the Wanaque Center for Nursing and Rehabilitation in Haskell, NJ around age two.

Celine attended DCF Regional School, Passaic Campus. She was transported to and from school in her wheelchair. Celine could sit independently on the mat and love to play and move to her favorite music tract “Happy” by Pharrell Williams. She was highly motivated by music and frequently calms to the sound of music when she was upset.

Celine left behind her mother, Ms. Gloria Onyewuenyi and uncle, Mr. Paul Onyewuenyi. She also left behind twin sister, Romary Anyanwu, and two other siblings, Chisaraokwu Njoku and Chimaobi Njoku.

She will be missed by friends and family including, DCP&P Essex Central LO, DCF Regional School Passaic, The Wanaque Center for Nursing and Rehabilitation and St. Joseph Regional Medical Center, Paterson.
