Reflections of Life

Amir Shareef Pyron affectionately known as “AP” was born March 26, 1997 in Passaic, New Jersey. He was the son of Susan Pyron and Darrell Kennedy and was lovingly raised by David Donaldson. He entered eternal rest on Monday, October 7, 2019.

Amir attended the Passaic Public School System. In addition Amir graduated from the HoHoKus School of Trade and Technical Sciences Paterson. He received a certificate in Labor and Construction. Throughout his youth Amir held various labor and construction jobs. Amir was very knowledgeable in various capacities such as computers, mechanical and home repairs.

AP will be remembered as a quiet, kind hearted, humble and respectful person. He would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. He was also one that you could count on for having fun with, he was a jokester and a very funny person.

In additional to his parents Amir leaves to cherish precious memories with his sisters D’yani Donaldson, Destiny Donaldson, Darrielle Kennedy, Deja Kennedy, and Lena Chamberlain, his brothers Jaquan Kenner and Zahire Kenner, his maternal grandparents Edward and Marilyn Pyron, his paternal grandparents Jean Robinson and Harold Kennedy, his aunts Judi Pyron, Kim Pyron-Darling, his uncles Keith Pyron and (who preceded him in death) Eric Pyron, his nephews Zakye Kenner and Jaiden Kenner, and his niece Jaelynn Kenner and a host of cousins, loved ones and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are
lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
