Cherished Memories of Phillip C. Wright Jr.

Phillip Wright Jr. was born to Daphne and Phillip Wright Sr. on June 30, 1977 in the parish of Kingston, Jamaica.

Phillip attended Primary and Secondary School in Jamaica, West Indies. Phillip migrated to the United States at the age of fourteen. He attended Tilden High School and Kingsborough College.

Phillip was a very kind and loving, fun person who could make you laugh even on your saddest day. He was very friendly and didn't look down at anyone. Phillip gave his life to Christ at an early age.

Phillip could not wait to turn sixteen to get his first job at Wendy's, and worked at Sony Music City, where he met with a lot of great people who loved him.

Phillip's life was filled with smiles, laughter and love. He could always be counted on to be there for family and friends.

He will be sadly missed by his brothers, Dayneton, Sheldon, Shawn, Gary and Carlton, Auntie Joan and Pansy, Uncle Ian, Johnny, Juddy and Cornelius and lots of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Thanks to everyone who attended.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard Him call
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day.
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it up with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much.
 Good friends, good times,
 a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free!
