

Don't spend too much time in mourning

Tears are for the sad;

I left to be with Jesus

And this should make you glad.

Don't waste your hours in grieving

No need to feel distress

I'm tired of life's frustrations

And had to get some rest.

Don't puzzle yourself with questions

Or try to reason why

Life here for me was ended,

It came my time to die.

Don't lose then love I gave you

Feed it with your care;

Grow it with devotion

And spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving

Came in such a way;

We'll have another meeting

In God's eternal day.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Betty Joe Moorer was born August 14, 1935 to the late Alfred Hillman Mangum and Essie Green in Granville, North Carolina. On October 17, 2019, she made her transition into the arms of the Lord.

In the year 1952 at the age of 17 Betty married William Kearny and from that Union came Robin Lynn Andrews. In 1959 at the age of 24 Betty married the late (Melvin Redding) and from that union came Ozetta Amenthia Redding Gantt and Melanie Redding Brown.

In 1990, Betty finally met the love of her life, Daniel Nathaniel Moorer and were united in holy matrimony and relocated to West Palm Beach, Florida in 1991. There, their lives blossomed and they became inseparable. Upon moving to WPB, FL Betty and Daniel joined Orthodox Zion Primitive Baptist Church and were devoted members.

Betty was a god fearing, praying, scripture quoting, straight forward, woman of wisdom, and true matriarch of her family. Betty's passions were taking care of her grandchildren and great grandchildren over the summers. Betty's enjoyments of life were cooking, cleaning, watching soap operas, traveling, dancing, singing, listening to gospel, and putting together portrait memories.

Betty is now reunited with her loved ones which preceded her in death, husband, Daniel Nathaniel Moorer, Christine Mangum, one brother, Arvie Mangum, three sisters, Christine Mangum, Jennie Mangum and Virgie Mangum Perry, well as her daughter Robin Lynn Andrews.

Betty leaves to cherish her memory, her son Donnel "Jimbo" and (Carolyn) Varner, Clio, Alabama, two daughters, Ozetta (Raymond) Gantt, Melanie Brown of Lakewood, NJ, son-in-law, Charles Andrews of Wellington, FL; two step children, Denise Curry and Daniel Moorer Jr.; ten grandchildren, Byron (Kecia) Kearney, Valencia Kearney, Derrick Lamar Andrews, Raymond Antwoine Gantt Jr., Bianca Simone (Gerard) Green, Raymond Hillman Gantt III, Meghan Redding, Valentine Alexia Brown, Layelle Varner, Kyana Varner; eight great grandchildren, and a host of nieces nephews and friends.

She was a proud and particular lady.

OUR GRANDMOTHER AND GREAT GRANDMOTHER

To the world you were just known as our grandmother and great grandmother, but to us you were our 2nd mother, the backbone of the family and the top of our triangle....OUR NANA In life we have seen people come and go but you have never allowed us to feel alone. We were blessed to have a grandmother and great grandmother as dear and unique as you. Definitely one of a kind, and could never be duplicated. Although our hearts are crying to hold and see your beautiful smile again, we know that you're holding a spot for us next to you. All of the memorable times that we have shared will never be in vain nor forsaken, for in our lives you will FOREVERMORE. THIS IS NOT A FAREWELL OR GOODBYE BUT INSTEAD A SEE YOU LATER.

Love you forevermore.

Love your grandchildren and great grandchildren.
