Obituary

On the morning of October 17, 2019, the Angel of Silence came into the hospital room of Laura Evans and sealed the lips of a loving sister at the golden age of 94. Her soul is now resting in eternal peace.

Laura was born on January 28, 1925 in Mount Carmel, South Carolina to the late Ernest and Daisy Clark. She was preceded in death by her loving husband Joseph "Joe" Evans and several siblings.

Laura became a member of Spring Grove Baptist Church in Mount Carmel, SC at an early age and was active in the church. Laura attended Rockford School in Mount Carmel, SC.

Later on Laura relocated to New York City, she worked at Sovitz Leather Goods & Handbags Novelty Corp. for over twenty years. Laura met and married her late husband, Joe Evans. They were a devoted and loving couple.

Laura was a loving and giving sister and a wonderful and devoted wife. She will be truly missed.

Those left to cherish her memories are: one brother, Ernest Clark of NYC; two sisters, Eunice Clark of Florida, NY and Leona Clark-Thomas of Camden, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*We never lose the ones we love,
for even though they're gone;
within the hearts of those who care their memory lingers on...*

*Your loving sisters,
Eunice and Leona*

Heaven Has Gained An Angel

*As you complete this temporary journey
you have embraced our hearts
Yes we mourn but realize this is where your life truly starts your smile sparkled greater than silver and gold We're willing to let go of your hand so that God can grab hold .
We will always love you as you have continued to love us all we ask now is that you look down while you are above us we are grateful that God put us in the midst of your presence we breathe with your memory and walk with your essence. The Lord is our Shepherd He tends to us as sheep and mends the hearts that are weak until one day we can shake his hand and sit at his feet we don't think of you as a loss to our family that remains We cherish you as a beautiful angel that heaven has gained!*
