Obituary

Rose Primus was born on July 25, 1932, the daughter of late James Richards and Sarah Livingston Richards, in New York, New York. Growing up as one of nine children, she was raised in New York City where she attended her education from elementary to high school.

After graduating from high school, she worked in the garment district of New York which spoke to her sophistication and style. Later in years, she began her career as a MTA employee. After many years of working for MTA, she retired and enjoyed the retired life doing her. Many who knew Rose know that she had a love for film. Matinees and movies all day was her thing.

Rose was a very independent woman, hard worker, strong willed and a real trooper. She is the last member of our grand generation to have left us. She will be remembered by her brother-in-law Clarence Augustus and a host of nieces, nephews, grand-nieces, grand-nephews, and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
