Obituary

Curtis Black was born on September 10, 1962 in New York City. He was the son of Ruth Mae Black and the late Levy Black. Curtis became ill in 2018 and now he has passed on.

Curtis attended the New York City Public Schools and continued on to George Washington High School. After graduating he pursued a career path in security where he obtained his New York State Security License.

He served 26 years between North General Hospital and Manhattan North Upper Management.

Curtis will always be known as “The Harlem B.I.G.” rockin’ his Kango hats, Gazelle glasses and Boom Box headphones while bouncing to some classic Hip Hop tunes.

Curtis was a loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother and uncle.

Curtis leaves behind: his wife, Diane Cabbagestalk Black; son, Curtis K. Black; daughter, Vanessa Black; grandson, Kaiden M. Castillo; stepdaughter, Octavia Cabbagestalk; his mother, Ruth Mae Black; sisters, Delores and April Black; brothers, Darryl, Levi and Edward Black; sisters-in-law, Fannie Mae, Margaret, Charlene, TriShawnda and Latiesha; brothers-in-law, Lawrence and Julius; last but not least a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and cousins as well.

No Need To Worry, No Need To Cry

No need to worry, no need to cry nor question God and wonder why. My heart's at peace you're wondering how because my soul is with Jesus and I'm resting now. The services I gave for my family and friends were services of love, even to the end. Loved one's now look to Jesus for He knows best. He carried me home for I needed the rest. Family don't you cry and don't be afraid for me, already a way has been made. Keep trusting in Jesus and doing His will, through Jesus my presence you will always feel. Yes, my heart's at peace and my soul's at rest and you wonder how; it's because I'm with Jesus and I'm resting now. I'm in a better place as long as I'm with Jesus. I'm resting, just like a white dove I've flown away yet. I'm resting now.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
