Denise Taylor Robinson vs. Life

This is my story, my name is Denise Taylor Robinson and if you know me you know all of my accomplishments.

Touch down on October 18, 2010. I got on the field, I was on the 50 yard line four years later my twin (Pop Ski) told me to pass him the ball. I said "NO" let's run this together. He made it to the end zone on May 30, 2015. Now I'm all alone the yards are getting longer, but as my twin would've said (LIG) let it go sis.

*I'm scared but I'll continue to run with my head up high.
My daughter Thelma who made sure I carried the ball to my son Greg who passed it back when I fumbled, my granddaughter Niya cheering for me "keep going Momma, we need you" Jordan and Elijah will pass you the ball.*

My God daughter Quiana and her son Rashaan hold on to my sisters Evie, Nookie, Tammy you have a couple of more fields to go Rah. Go Big Blue (LOL) be strong and to cousin Tina I'm getting tired can you fix this (LOL)

*To my friend Benjamin friends til the end.
I won the game you know what I used to say "I'm Great PEACE until we meet again"*

*To my family and friends who names I didn't mention
"I LOVE YOU ALL"*

Celebration of Life Well Lived

Denise (Niese) Taylor Robinson was born on January 8, 1961 at Margaret Hague Hospital in Jersey City, New Jersey. She was the third child born to the late Oesa and Thelma Taylor.

Denise was educated in the Jersey City Public School system. After high school she attended Jersey City State College, and also served time in the military. She retired from the Hudson County Juvenile Detention Center in 2011.

Denise accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at a very young age. She devoted herself to the principles of the gospel to guide her life and community. In February 2019 she organized a heart awareness event. The event educated the community on heart disease in the African American community. She was featured in Beth Israel Healthy Today magazine.

Denise loved watching sports especially the New York Giants and the New York Knicks. Denise enjoyed traveling, spending quality time with her family and friends. She loved playing a variety of card games.

Denise is preceded in her death by her parents, her brother, Tyrone Taylor and her best friends, Leanne Wilson and Cathy Neal. She is survived by her husband, Gregory Robinson Sr. (Jersey City); Her daughters, Thelma Robinson (Jersey City), Quiana Monserrate (Jersey City); Her son, Gregory Robinson Jr. (Jersey City); Grandchildren, Sterlin Smith, Shannon Smith, and Zaniya Robinson, Her sisters, Evelyn Fluitt (Kingstree, SC), Kathy (Raymond) Wilborn (Kingstree, SC); and Tammy Taylor (Jersey City); Her aunt, Jeanette MCDaniel; Her nieces and nephews, Francine Conyers- McCrea, Frankie Conyers, Raymond Wilborn Jr., Helen Taylor, Tyrone Wilborn, Rashan Taylor, Barbara Wilborn, and Annie Taylor; Special cousin, Tina Holmes-Pettis, The Nash Family, a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends.

After a While

After a while you learn the subtle difference between holding a hand and chaining a soul
And you learn that love doesn't mean leaning and company doesn't mean security.
And you begin to learn that kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises
And you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes ahead with the grace of a woman, not the grief of a child
And you learn to build all your roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans and futures have a way of falling down in mid-flight.

After a while you learn that even sunshine burns
if you get too much.

So you plant your own garden and decorate your own soul
instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers.

And you learn that you really can endure that you really are strong and that you really do have worth And you learn and you learn with every goodbye you learn...
