Obituary

Mario Reginald Newett was born June 8th, 1957 to the late Mildred Newett and Andrew Coleman and his adopted mother Ms. Virginia Williams who also preceded him in death. Mario received his education in the New York City public school system from there he went on to work at Greenpoint Pipe Supply as a pipe fitter until he became disabled. He had a love for music, everyone that knew him was aware he could spin the vinyl on any turntable. He was a true mix master.

Mario enjoyed attending the Bedford Social Adult Day Center where he met and made friends, he was loyal to all he met. He enjoyed his frequent visits from his devoted nephew Derrick Boney.

Mario leaves to mourn his sisters Blanche Benjamin, Cheryl Williams, Bette Williams, Mildred Newett and Cassie Coleman and brothers Antonio Newett and Larry Williams also three brothers who preceded him in death Michael Newett, Odell Newett and Herman Newett. A host of nieces and nephews, family and friends.

He leaves us all with sadness and a heavy heart but we are anchored with the knowledge that he is at peace. He departed this life on October 29th, 2019, He will be greatly missed and his wonderful memory will be etched in our hearts and minds forever.
