Obituary

Frederick (Fred) James McCoggle was born on July 25, 1939 in Lakeland, Georgia to Frank and Nora Owens McCoggle. He attended Queen of Peace Parish grammar school and Lakeland High School. Fred was a very easy going, kind-hearted person. In high school he was the star basketball player and throughout his life he remained an avid sports fan.

He moved to Newark, New Jersey in 1959. After working for a while, he was called to the United States Army. He served his tour of duty in Korea and was honorably discharged. Shortly after, Fred was employed by the U.S. Postal Service and retired after over 40 years of service as a supervisor.

Fred met Joan Thompson while working for the U.S. Postal Service. They were married for 39 years. Frederick McCoggle was also a faithful member of Blessed Sacrament and St. Charles Church. He also loved his New Jersey scratch off tickets, even if his sister scratched them off prior to giving them to him.

He was pre-deceased by his parents; wife, Joan; two brothers and a sister; Alpha, Michael, and Katherine. Fred is survived by his sisters Patricia Tinley and Margaret McCoggle, brothers Horace McCoggle and Jerome McCoggle (Arline), nephews Steven and Kareem, nieces Angela, Asyrra, and Sakari, and adopted family Ana, Diana, and Ivan LaBoy, and a host of family and friends.

*A Precious One
From Us Is Gone*

*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we love is stilled,
A place is vacant in our heart
which never can be filled.
But always beautiful memories
of one we love so dear.*
