Reflections of Life

Jessie Mae Brown was born on January 29, 1932 in Bowdon, Georgia to the late Jessie and Mary Buchanan. Jessie later moved to New Jersey, where she resided in Hackensack with her husband, Paul Brown, Jr., who departed this life (July, 1970).

Jessie was employed as a Secretary and a Domestic Engineer. She was also a member of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church of South Hackensack, where she was a member of the choir, Usher Board, the Love, Hope & Charity Club, as well as faithful in other church auxiliaries. Jessie was honored as a mother, church and community worker, in May 2003. She was known for her warm smile, soft voice, and compassionate heart towards everyone that she came in contact with. The work that she did during her life now speaks for her.

Jessie departed this life on Friday, November 1, 2019 in Wayne, NJ. In addition to her husband she was preceded in death by her six brothers, and five sisters.

She leaves to cherish sweet memories, her sister, Daisy Ward of Elmwood Park, NJ; and one brother, Judge Brown; one sister-in-law, Billie Ann Brown. Jessie was loved and will be missed by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

A special thanks to the staff of Doctors Sub-Acute Center, Regency Garden Nursing Home, and the St. Joseph's Medical Center for their love and care. We will always remember you for your kindness.
