

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Precious Memories

Frederick Alexander Mintor also known as Fred, Saleem and Ricky was born in Fayetteville, NC on August 26, 1960 to Freddie and Velma Mintor. His family moved to Newark, NJ in October 1960 where he was raised, and attended parochial school from Kindergarten to 12th grade. He played for and later coached baseball for the South Ward Little League. He graduated from Fayetteville State University with a BS in Business Administration.

After college, he worked for accounting firms such as Robert Harris and Associates preparing taxes. He met a woman that the Lord made for him in 1986. The union was a mountain to climb but they did it. On August 10, 1991, they joined together in holy matrimony at Roseville Presbyterian Church. Before they were married they became members of the church and he took on various roles such as: President of the Roseville men's club, a Deacon, Elder, assistant to the Sexton, and an active member of the choir, R.O.C.C. Board and former President of the Black Presbyterian Caucus Newark Chapter.

After grinding through accounting work, he found his way to an interesting job at Verizon formerly known as Bell Atlantic. He began in sales and then crossed over to a facility technician, where he became a shop steward for IBEW LOCAL 827 and held many other technical positions until he retired in 2014.

The only thing in life he wanted was to stay in God's favor, have love to share, health to spare and friends who care. Frederick is survived by his wife, Renee and two daughters: Taliah (Erik Walker) and Simone (Derrick Brown), four grandchildren: Jayden, Nia, Elijah and Micah, five siblings, Constance Johnson, Pamela Jackson, Reginald (Sandra), Michael and Jack "Christopher" Mintor and a host of relatives and friends.
