Obituary

Hampton Gordon Smith, affectionately called "Smitty", was born December 27, 1941 to George and Edna Smith in Charleston, South Carolina. Smitty, along with his wife, Yvette, was called to rest on Friday, October 18, 2019.

Smitty moved to New York in 1965, where he was employed in many capacities, at one time owning his own janitorial business. At the time of his death, Smitty was a beloved Superintendent of three buildings in the Harlem Community. A staple of the community, Smitty on most days could be found sitting in his favorite spot greeting every passerby. He never met a stranger and was known for his kindness extended toward his neighbors. Every child in the block looked forward to their interactions with "Mr. Smitty".

Smitty is survived by: five sons, Matthew Smith, Mark Smith, Terrence Smith, Vincent Smith and Cornelius Woodies; two daughters-in-law; two sisters; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Beyond the Empty Chair

Look beyond the empty chair
To know a life well spent
Look beyond the solitude
To days of true content
Cherish in your broken heart
Each moment gladly shared
And feel the touch of memory
Beyond the empty chair.
