

10 beautiful fingers
10 beautiful toes
2 beautiful eyes
1 beautiful nose
A beautiful smile, many laughs and some tears
Just a beautiful Angel that God sent here!

For many years she touched many hearts
With the fight of a soldier from the very first start

She touched many lives and impacted souls how she created such love?
Nobody knows!
She came to this earth with one simple job,
To reveal to you all the strength that you hide!
Her job here was done so she went away to watch from a distance in a better place

Now you stand by and you look to the sky
Reminisce on memories as you ask God why?
But as you sit here and you shed your tears
Just close your eyes tight, she'll be right there
When the nights get cold and your blanket wares
To warm your heart, she'll be right there
When the storm get too tough and you can not bare
Feel her in your soul, SHE'LL BE THERE
When life knocks you down and you can't get up
Hear her whisper softly she ain't go nowhere
And when your feeling lonely and down on your luck
Remember as long as you love her she'll ALWAYS be right there!

In Loving Memory of Aunt Randie

Obituary

Randie Scott daughter of the late Lewis Charles Scott and Frances Scott “Cox”, was born on August 2, 1956 in Newark, New Jersey. She departed life suddenly on Wednesday, November 13, 2019.

Randie attended public school in the inner city of Newark. She graduated College from Essex County College, which lead to her career in teaching special education in Newark, NJ. Besides Randie’s love for teaching, she enjoyed good music and showing off her moves “dancing”. You also can’t forget about her summer afternoons with the golden girls, her orange soda, her brother, sisters and family. There was never a day when she allowed anything to come before her family or that orange soda!

Randie was ready to face any truth or obstacle head on. She was straight to the point and clean cut with a lot of character. In Randie’s words she was a child of God, and L.C. and Frances daughter! “Are you Alright?! Alright Now!”

Randie is preceded in death by her beloved first born, Aquila Scott, parents, Lewis and Frances Scott, favorite aunt, Maire Cox, and siblings, Buster Scott, Troy Scott, Victoria Scott, and Margaret “Mickey” Hall.

Randie leaves to cherish her children that she took so much pride in Derrick (Tia) and Omar Scott. Randie was especially proud of her siblings, Joyce, Tony “Roy” (Eva) and Kimberly Scott. Randie gracefully embraced her two grandsons, Lamont and Trevor Scott and one granddaughter, Cariah Mickens. She also have four beautiful great grandchildren. She was surrounded by a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. Randie embraced her friends as her family, Smallwood, K. Pope, and her late childhood friend, Khadijah Lynch.

Randie Scott will be missed by all who had the opportunity and pleasure to know her.

Lovingly submitted by the Family
