

Hey Ma, Your no-nonsense personality, determination, and independence have taught us to work diligently at doing our best to become our best. Thank you for your love, your prayers, and not giving up hope. You have always looked for teaching moments and the one that we will always remember is to treat others as we would like to be treated. God couldn't have blessed us with a more loving mother and we respect, honor and appreciate the jewel that you have been in our life. Our memories of you will keep us smiling. We will always hold your infectious smile in our hearts. We love and miss you so much!

Loving Sons, Booker Jr. and Kevin

Always In Your Heart

Picture me as I was,
Full of life and love.
Although not with you now
I'm watching from above.
I know how much
You miss me,
And I miss you too.
It was my time to leave,
As each of us will do.
Although not in your arms
I'm always in your heart.
The precious love we shared.
Means we're never far apart.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
A special "thank you" to Ms. Ethel Jackson for spending countless hours visiting our mom. Not to mention the many conversations and laughs we had at our kitchen table. You're one of the best!

Obituary

Delois Washington was born on April 5, 1939 in Tallahassee, Florida to Jannie and Willie Jiles. She was the youngest of three children.

Delois was educated in Leon County. She was united in holy matrimony to Booker T. Washington, Sr. in 1955, and to that union two children were born, Booker T. Jr. and Kevin Washington.

Delois confessed Christ and was baptized at an early age at the Mary Primitive Baptist Church, in Tallahassee, Florida where she was a member until she relocated with her family to Newark, NJ.

Delois attended Essex County College where she earned her degree.

Delois became a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church located at 326 15th Avenue, Newark, NJ where she served on the usher's board and sang in the choir until she became ill.

Delios was preceded in death by her parents, Willis and Jannie and her brother, Willis Jiles III.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Booker T. Jr. (Monique) Washington of Elizabeth, NJ, Kevin J. (Belinda) Washington of East Orange, NJ; one brother, Wilford (Mary) Jiles of Tallahassee, Florida; three grandsons, Booker T. Washington III, Kevin A. Washington and Kaashif Washington; one great granddaughter; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.
